

useful windows applications

List November 2020

List November 2020 (Standard)

1. Taskmanager
2. Device Manager
3. Control Panel
4. Command prompt (cmd.exe)
5. Powershell
6. Run

Taskmanager

- + Taskmanager is a Windows application that can force other applications to stop, show processes for both Windows and others, manage the applications that will open once you start/login your device. It has more functions but these are the most common ones.

Device Manager

- + Device manager is commonly used to install, reinstall and update the drivers of your computers hardware. For example, if your laptop's webcam stops working, check device manager and reinstall the driver. Allot of the times this will fix your problem.

Control Panel

- + Control panel, to put it simple. Is the settings application but more advanced. Most settings that require administrator privileges. Hardware, software and other settings can be found here.

Command Prompt (cmd.exe)

- + This is the command line of Windows, Python can also be ran through this command line. And other tools can be ran through here. Command Prompt is also used allot by Pen-Testers.

Powershell

- + To put it simple, Powershell is Command Prompt but with administrator privileges. More commands can be ran through it too.

Run

- + Run is a windows application through which you can open applications and run commands. Run can be opened by searching it, but also by using the shortcut Win+R.

List November 2020 (Non Standard)

1. Rufus (Make a USB Bootable)
2. WinRAR (RAR/ZIP unpacker)
3. Atom (Coding IDE)
4. Python3 (Coding Language)
5. Pip3 (Python3 Library Installer)
6. Unity (Game Engine)
7. Android Studio (Android App Engine)
8. Visual Studio (C# IDE)

Useful Websites List 2020

- +Github
- +Stackoverflow
- +The Python Docs
- +YouTube (There are great tutorials on here)